

Charles Habisreutinger

The Spartanburg Downtown Association is a community-based organization that plans, markets, and advocates for Downtown Spartanburg.

The association's goal is to be a guiding force for positive growth and improvement of the downtown area by providing leadership, and marketing as the dynamic center of commerce in the Greater Spartanburg community.

SDA performs services directly related to downtown development, such as promotion and advertising, business retention and recruitment, and planning and problem solving among downtown residents, businesses, property owners, employees, and community leaders.

Born and raised in Spartanburg, Charles Habisreutinger is a graduate of the Spartanburg Day School and The University of the South.

In 2003, Charles began working for Champion Investment Corporation, a real estate development and property management company in Spartanburg. Prior to working for Champion, Charles worked for Vail Resorts.

Charles is a 2006 alumni of Leadership Spartanburg, current Chairman of the Board for The Children's Advocacy Center of Spartanburg, Cherokee, and Union Counties, and Past President of the Spartanburg Downtown Association.

Charles began his board service to Spartanburg Downtown Association in January of 2010.

